Tremont First National Bank

June A. Harnacke named next President of The First National Bank in Tremont

The Board of Directors of The First National Bank in Tremont is pleased to announce June A. Harnacke has been named to succeed James R. Shafer as President of the Bank, effective January 1, 2017. Mr. Shafer will remain at the Bank as CEO until his retirement December 31, 2017.

Harnacke started at New Holland Farmers Bank in 1979, and remained through two mergers, leaving as Community Bank President of Union Planters Bank in 1999. She then worked for North American Association of Central Cancer Registries, Inc., where she served as Director of Administration until 2004, when she returned to the banking profession, as Vice President of The First National Bank in Tremont at their New Holland Banking Center.

Ms. Harnacke is a graduate of Lincoln Christian University, where she obtained her degree in Leadership and Management. She is also a graduate of the Illinois Bankers School at SIU Carbondale. She is treasurer of the Abraham Lincoln Memorial Hospital Foundation Board and a member of the Lincoln Community High School Foundation.

School News

Recently, Tremont Grade School students celebrated Red Ribbon Week by celebrating our Superheros. Teachers also decorated their doors to reflect our pledge to say no to bad choices. In addition to the dress up days and door decorating contest, students were asked to bring in food for the Tremont Food Pantry. Overall, the families of TGS donated over 1,000 items. Thank you for giving back to our community.
